

Winsham-in the county of Somerset

Incorporating the Saxon village of Winsham and the hamlets of Ammerham, Bridge, Leigh, Whatley, Street & Purtington, on the southern tip of Somerset

The new banner above signifies summer, showing a view of Forde Abbey, across the fields, on a stormy day. It was created by Deborah Harris , a resident of Winsham

Always one of Winsham's favourite events!

WINSHAM E-LETTER

No: 747

12th September 2024

Hi all,

First let me apologise for the continued interruption in the e-letter service over the last month or so. Since the last edition my wife, Jan, has in addition to her struggle against Parkinson's, suffered an aneurism and was rushed to hospital. She is now home, but her care is my top priority. To make things worse, from the perspective of producing the e-letter on a regular basis, a problem developed with my e-mail service provider deciding that the e-letter was 'spam' and prevented its distribution. I may have overcome this and a short acknowledgement of receipt from readers would be appreciated-you can just say 'Yes' if you would. It would be very helpful in establishing if I have overcome the problem.

If my efforts are successful, I will try to keep the e-letter as regular as possible, and this will be influenced by the number of important events coming up on the calendar-so keep the information coming in. The e-letter will continue to be available via the Home page on the Winsham Parish Web site via Headlines, and the big 'E' logo beneath it, and via a link on the Winsham Community Facebook page.

As always new of important village events can be accessed from the links below.

This week we have a report and pictures from the WHS Annual Show, and also information about the coming Winsham Art Club Annual Exhibition... and a lot more.

Enjoy, and stay warm!

John
