4th August, 2018

Hi,
August started with an interesting Parish Council meeting on Wednesday evening. Quite a few residents turned up to give their point of view on various items. I was encouraged by the sensible points that were expressed on a couple of difficult issues-the Upper Rec. and its main gate. I was impressed by the acknowledgement by all concerned that solutions need to be sought, and as quickly as possible, to establish facts and preserve the harmony that usually characterises Winsham's approach to genuinely held differences of opinion.
If you wish to keep informed on Winsham Parish Council and its deliberations, follow the Winsham Parish Council Web site, and follow the published agenda and the Minutes of the meetings.

Henk Beentje, who lives at Leigh, sent me some lovely pictures taken by him on the Winsham Walkers regular excursion into the local countryside last Thursday. This caused me to realise that the Winsham Walkers web page had not been updated for several years, and I have used these pictures to stimulate, I hope, fresh interest. Not that they really need it-the group, led for these last twenty or so years by Peter and Mary Pye seems as strong as ever!

Finally, The Bell has a new menu, which can be seen by following the link below.
Happy eating,
